

Cascade Clamp

Cascade Clamps - Cascade Manufacturing Company was founded in Portland, Oregon in 1943. They started out as a small machine shop in the beginning hiring 4 people. Product sales for their initial year of operation totaled $60,000. The first recorded sales revenues involved the assembly and machining of stainless steel pipe fittings, valves and other parts. Throughout 5 years of operation, the business had expanded to 40 staff and their yearly sales volume had increased to $330,000. These days, Cascade is among the top global manufacturers within the material handling business.

Manufacture and design of the company's initial hydraulic cylinder paved the way in Cascade's aggressive quest of new business opportunities. Over the past sixty years, the material handling industry has grown into a highly sophisticated field and Cascade has proudly played a part on this growth. Cascade currently continues to grow as the leader provider of lift truck accessories and numerous related products. The company feels certain in their capability in order to continue to lead the way in the business by understanding buyer's requirements in the future and remaining aggressive within the global market.

All through the nineteen fifties, Cascade began to make, design, and sell its hydraulic attachments. A new facility was built in 1956, to house all plant operations and offices in Portland, Oregon, which remains to be the company's present center of operations. After 15 years of business, total employees reached a hundred and eighty employees and sales had reached practically $2,300,000.

1959 in Springfield, Ohio the next production plant was built. The year 1960 marked Cascade's initial transfer into the international world of the material handling industry while the company recognized interest in the Netherlands, England, and Australia.

The business altered its name to Cascade Corporation in the year 1964. In the year 1965, Cascade went public with an initial offering of two hundred thousand shares of common stock. The business has expanded its production facilities within the U.S. with locations in Springfield, Ohio, Warner Robins, Georgia, Portland, Oregon. Cascade merchandise are manufactured globally because of numerous subsidiary operations. In the year 1944, a brand new facility was completed in Almere, the Netherlands which is Cascade's European command center. This facility is built to be the ultimate customer service centre.

Continuing to grow, Cascade expanded their product offering further in 1996 and 1997 with the dramatic acquisition of 5 companies, together with the global best in forks, the Kenhar Corporation.
